THIS WEEK'S EVENTS

VERNON KING WILL VISIT PTS

Monday, January 19, Miller Chapel, 10:30 a.m.
The Seminary will celebrate the birthday of Martin Luther King with a special service of worship, "The Theme of Hope." Vernon Christopher King, nephew of Martin Luther, will be the guest preacher. King serves on the faculty and staff of the Martin Luther King, Jr., Center for Non-Violent Social Change in Atlanta.

A reception in the Main Lounge, sponsored by the Association of Black Seminarians, will follow the service. The art of three local black artists, including the work of Arthur Tolbert on the Seminary staff, will be featured in the Mackay Center. In addition, the T.B.A. will display the full set of Martin Luther King Jr.'s books.

FACULTY SEMINAR

Tuesday, January 20, Oratory, 10:00 a.m.
The subject of discussion will be Joel Marcus's paper, "Pride and Prejudice and the Gospel." Drs. Ollenburger and Willis will respond.

CHURCH AND LESBIAN/ GAY CONCERNS

Discussion: Tuesday, January 20, Main Lounge, 8:00 p.m.
CL/GC will host members of the Metropolitan Community Church of Christ the Liberator in Princeton, a church founded primarily by and for gay and lesbian Christians. Metropolitan participants will discuss "Mission and Ministries" with the Seminary community.

Note: Anyone who wants to attend the service at 1:00 p.m. at the Metropolitan Community Church on Sunday, January 18, and needs transportation, can contact Elizabeth Affsprung, 683-4692.

I.S.A. SEMINAR

Friday, January 23, 7:00 p.m. - Sunday, January 25, Auditorium
The International Students' Association will sponsor a workshop led by Dr. Pablo Richard, Universidad Nacional de Costa Rica, on "Hermeneutic of Liberation: Reading the Bible from the Perspective of the Poor in Latin America." Dr. Richard will give the opening lecture on the seminar's theme at 7:00 p.m., Friday evening. For more information on the program of events, please contact Oscar Suarez, 924-6351.

GENERAL NOTICES

GRADUATE STUDY FELLOWSHIP

"The Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Ministry" will be awarded to a graduating Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) senior at Commencement 1987. A description of the Fellowship is on page 140 of the present seminary catalogue. This Fellowship is to be used for travel and study overseas and does not have to be toward a degree. The Fellowship is intended for one who is dedicated to parish ministry rather than to an academic career.

Seniors who wish to be considered for the Fellowship should pick up an application form in the Office of the Dean of the Seminary, 128 Administration Building, between now and February 16, 1987. The completed applications must be returned by March 6, 1987. Decision on the award will be made in mid-April.

Conrad H. Massa

ECUMENICAL INSTITUTE BOSSEY

The Office of Ecumenical Coordination of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is offering a $500.00 scholarship for participation in a seminar at the Ecumenical Institute, Bossey, Switzerland. If you would like to be considered for this opportunity, or if you want more information, please stop in at the academic dean's office, 124 Administration Building, before February 13.

GRADUATE STUDIES FELLOWSHIP

Calvin Theological Seminary has announced a graduate studies fellowship in the amount of $3,000 plus full tuition for one year of full time study with a view to securing the Th.M. degree. Students who qualify for admission as candidates for the Th.M. degree are invited to apply. The award will be made on the basis of academic record, character, and promise of growth.

Applications are available from:

The Registrar
Calvin Theological Seminary

FINANCIAL AID UPDATE

Attention all Guaranteed Student Loan Borrowers. The Reauthorization Act of 1986 requires the Financial Aid Office to perform Exit Interviews with all student borrowers prior to the period they cease to be enrolled on at least a half-time basis. If you fit into this category, you must schedule your one-on-one counseling session with the financial aid director prior to leaving the Seminary. The information you obtain in this session will be beneficial to you as you make plans for your future. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me.

LECTURE

Thursday, February 5, Main Lounge, 1:30 p.m.
Pastor Giorgio Bouchard. "A Waldensian Critique of Church and Society in the U.S.: The Rediscovery of America."
The former moderator of the Waldensian Church in Italy until December 1986, Pastor Bouchard is currently on sabbatical leave in the United States. He describes the Waldensian Church as a minority church whose practice of ministry maintains that biblical faith and political conscience, spirituality and solidarity with the poor belong together. Following his ordination in 1958, he directed the Protestant Youth Federation in Italy, served three local churches, and until his election as moderator in 1979, launched and directed the ministry of the Jacopo Lombardini Center in Cinisello Balsamo, a working-class and immigrant suburb of Milan.

Bouchard's son, Daniele, was a PTS student last year.

Conference on Interviewing: Wednesday, February 11, Main Lounge, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.
To assist seniors with the interviewing process, which will get into full swing in February, Dr. Dan Thomas has scheduled a conference on interviewing. Leading the conference will be two experienced people from 475 Riverside: J. Bradley Williams, associate general director of personnel, and Jerome J. Leksa, coordinator of counseling services. Handouts on preparing for a job interview will be available.

SCHOLARSHIP GRANTS

Under the auspices of the German churches and the German government, two scholarship grants for theological students will be offered. The grants will support an eight-week German language course given at one of the Goethe-Institutes in West Germany this summer. The scholarships cover tuition and living expenses during the term of the course but do not cover transportation. Interested students with a basic knowledge of German and a good justification for studying abroad this summer should send a brief written statement immediately to Dr. Karlfried Froehlich via campus mail. Please explain: 1) denominational affiliation; 2) the level of proficiency in German; 3) your reason for wanting to participate in this summer program.

Sponsored by the Princeton Seminary Stewardship Committee, the book sale will include hundreds of volumes of non-fiction, including theology. Proceeds from the sale will be used to underwrite stewardship projects and emergency funds.

Reminder to all Field Education students:
Please announce the upcoming book sale at your churches. A book drop has been set up in the lobby of the Mackay Center for book donations, or contributors can contact Randy Bush, 201 Hodge Hall, 683-1460.

GENERAL NOTICES

POST M.DIV. FELLOWSHIP

Applications are now being received for a one year post-M.Div. fellowship at Tuebingen University in Germany. (See general Catalogue, p. 141.) Interested students should apply by letter to Dean James Lapsley in the Administration Building no later than March 15. Also, please provide a PTS transcript and two faculty recommendations. Fluency in German is required.

AUDITIONS

Monday, February 9, and Wednesday, February 11, Auditorium, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Auditions will be held for the upcoming Speech Studios' production "An Aisle Seat," slated for presentation in April.

If you are a soloist, there will be plenty for you to do. If you are a chorister, there will be room for you as well; if you've never before been in a musical and always wanted to participate, this will be an opportunity to do so. Milton Lyon, well-known in musical theater, will direct the production. If neither the 9th nor the 11th is convenient, call 921-3748 to arrange for a suitable time.

ATTENTION SENIORS

Conference on Interviewing: Wednesday, February 11, Main Lounge, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Plan to attend the conference on interviewing, scheduled by Dr. Dan Thomas. Leading the conference will be two experienced people from 475 Riverside: J. Bradley Williams, associate general director of personnel, and Jerome J. Leksa, coordinator of counseling services. Handouts on preparing for a job interview will be available.

SITZ im LEBEN

The copy deadline for articles for the February issue of Sitz im Leben is Friday, February 13. Please place articles in campus mail addressed to Sitz im Leben.

GRADUATE STUDY FELLOWSHIP

"The Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Ministry" will be awarded to a graduating Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) senior at Commencement 1987. A description of the Fellowship is on page 140 of the present Seminary catalogue. This Fellowship is to be used for travel and study overseas and does not have to be toward a degree. The Fellowship is intended for one who is dedicated to parish ministry rather than to an academic career.

Seniors who wish to be considered for the Fellowship should pick up an application form in the Office of the Dean of the Seminary, 128 Administration Building, between now and February 16, 1987. The completed applications must be returned by March 6, 1987. Decision on the award will be made in mid-April.

MORNING PRAYER

The Morning Prayer Group will continue to meet at 7:00 a.m. in the chapel this semester. You are invited to begin your day with them in personal reflection and group worship.
(This event is listed under Regularly Scheduled Meetings.)

C.P.E. OPENINGS

It is still possible to consider a basic unit of C.P.E. during the summer of 1987. Openings are still available in clinical pastoral educational settings (mostly in general and psychiatric hospitals and prisons) around the country.

The commitment to a C.P.E. unit involves 11 or 12 weeks of servi as a chaplain under accredited chaplain supervisors. It's a challenging and rewarding experience and can be taken either for academic or field education credit. If you are interested, it i important that you notify Mrs. Hullfish as soon as possible, 21 Dickinson Street, room 101, extension 326.

M.DIV./M.S.W. INFORMATION NIGHT

Monday, February 23, P.D.R., 6:00 p.m.
Staff from the Rutgers University School of Social Work and personnel from Princeton Seminary will meet with interested students for a conversational dinner on this joint program.

Please make reservations through the Office of Professional Studies, 118 Hodge Hall.
There is no charge for the dinner.

SLIDE PRESENTATION

Tuesday, February 24, Main Lounge, 8:30 p.m.
The Princeton Seminary students who participated in the past year's trip to Israel will present slides and offer information about the Educational Opportunities program.

The group travel agency, Educational Opportunities, Inc., is proposing an 18-day trip to Israel in December 1987, which would include scholarship assistance to Seminary students.

SENIOR CLASS MEETING

Wednesday, February 25, Auditorium, 12:45 p.m.
Seniors -- plan to attend this meeting -- important voting and discussion will take place!

WORKSHOPS

Wednesday, February 25, Main Lounge & Auditorium, 6:30 p.m.

The Advisory Committee on Field Education will sponsor an evening of specialized workshops led by experienced youth group workers. The agenda will include:

"How to Succeed with Games and Crowdbreakers,"
"How to be an Effective Youth Leader,"
"How to Program According to the Needs of Your Youth."

Those attending will have a choice of two workshops.

STEWARDSHIP BOOK SALE

Thursday, February 26, & Friday, February 27

Due to the number of volumes available for sale this year, books will be offered at two locations, the Speer Library basement (north entrance-narrow outer stairs) and the Mackay cafeteria.

Book sale hours are 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Proceeds will benefit specific stewardship projects, emergency funds, and essential overseas mission needs. Improve your personal libraries by supporting this annual Seminary effort!

CONCERT

Thursday, February 26, Miller Chapel, 8:30 p.m.

As part of the series of music events for the 1986-87 academic year, the Seminary Chapel Choir and the Adult Choir of St. Paul's Baptist Church (Montclair, New Jersey) will present a joint concert.

David Weadon and Birdie Johnson, director of St. Paul's Choir and a PTS student, will direct the choirs in a potpourri of sacred music. Works by Beethoven and Mozart as well as Afro-American and white gospel music will be performed.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Friday, February 27, Miller Chapel, 8:00 p.m.

A memorial service is planned for Dr. Chai Choon Kim ('29G), recipient of the Seminary's Distinguished Alumnus Award in 1985. Following the service, a prayer meeting for Korea will be held.

UPCOMING EVENTS

ALEXANDER THOMPSON LECTURE

Monday, March 2, Main Lounge, 4:30 p.m.
Dr. Adela Yarbro Collins, professor of New Testament in the Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame, will present the Alexander Thompson Lecture established in 1909 to address topics of Biblical scholarship. Examining the "Son of Man" sayings in the Synoptic tradition and their relation to the historical Jesus, her topic will be "The Origin of the Designation of Jesus as Son of Man."

Collins has authored six books, including The Combat Myth in the Book of Revelation (1976), Feminist Perspectives on Biblical Scholarship (1985), and Early Christian Apocalypticism (1986).

DAY OF PRAYER

Celebration Service: Friday, March 6, Main Lounge, 8:00 p.m.

T.B.A. INFORMATION

March 6 will be the last day Religion in America (required for CH 02) will be available at the T.B.A. If you think you will need this book, please purchase it before the deadline. Returns of unwanted copies of this title must be taken care of by the March 6 deadline.

PTS SUMMER SCHOOL

Monday, June 8 - Friday, August 7

The 1987 Summer School program will offer 19 courses including Biblical Hebrew and New Testament Greek. Brochures with complete information and registration forms are now available in the Summer School Office, Tennent Hall, or you may call 921-8252 for details.

C.P.E. OPENINGS

Reminder: There is still time to consider a basic unit of C.P.E. during the summer of 1987. Openings exist in clinical pastoral educational settings (general and psychiatric hospitals and prisons) around the country.

The C.P.E. commitment involves 11 or 12 weeks of service as a chaplain under accredited chaplain supervisors. It's a challenging and rewarding experience and can be taken either for academic or field education credit. It is important, however, to contact Mrs. Hullfish, 21 Dickinson Street, room 101, extension 326, if you are interested.

SEMINAR

RIDER COLLEGE

Holocaust/Genocide Resource Center
Thursday, April 2, 7:30 - 10:00 p.m.

In March 1984 Rider College, building on its tradition of Holocaust and genocide studies, created a Holocaust/Genocide Resource Center. The purpose of this center is to record the testimony of Holocaust survivors and educators, to gather and disseminate new materials, and to explore the total ramifications of the Holocaust years in particular and genocide in general. The following is the premiere conference at the Center.

Program / April 2

7:30 - 8:00 p.m. Introduction to Holocaust/Genocide Center
8:00 - 9:30 p.m. "Dr. Korczak and the Children," a play by Erwin Sylvanus based on the real-life experience of Dr. Korczak, a physician and director of two orphanages in Warsaw, one Catholic and one Jewish.

The conference is open to the public free of charge.

"THE EVENT"

Wednesday, March 4, Mackay Center, Main Dining Room, 7:30 p.m.
"Coalition for Spring Mission."
A coalition of student groups, under the auspices of Plowshare, will sponsor "The Event," first in a series of discussions concentrating on the topic of Christian mission.

Planned in conjunction with the first day of the Lenten season, Ash Wednesday, the following agenda has been outlined:

- a plenary session followed by small group discussion on the topics "How have you been fed?", "What do you hunger for?". Designed to focus on mission to the individual, the format is intended to encourage conversation with those you may not already know. A closing session will draw upon the implications for PTS and community life.

RESCHEDULED LECTURE

Thursday, March 5, Main Lounge, 12:15 p.m.
Eugene Sutton, Ph.D. candidate, will speak on "Preaching in the Black Tradition." This lecture was originally scheduled for last week's 'snow day'.

The Music Department is pleased to present The University of Miami Collegium Musicum in a performance of sacred Lenten and Easter music. The program will include choruses from Handel's Messiah, Bach's St. John Passion and Mass in B Minor, and the German Requiem of Heinrich Schutz.

CONCERT

Sunday, March 15, Miller Chapel, 4:00 p.m.
Music Director David Weadon will welcome the American Boy Choir to the Seminary campus. James Litton, former director of music at the Seminary, will conduct the choir.

A number of complimentary tickets will be available to the Seminary community. Please check with the Chapel Office or Public Information.

WARFIELD LECTURES

Monday, March 23 - Thursday, March 26
Dr. Roy Fairchild, professor emeritus of spiritual life and psychology at San Francisco Theological Seminary, will deliver the annual Annie Kinkaid Warfield Lectures. Focusing on spirituality as an area of increasing importance for Christians and within American Protestant churches, Fairchild will address "Issues in Contemporary Spirituality" as his general lectureship theme.

Until his retirement in 1986, Fairchild was director of San Francisco Seminary's innovative Center for Christian Spiritual Disciplines. His earlier studies in psychology were at the C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco. (Lecture times and places will be announced.)

CONCERT

Friday, March 27, Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.
"Songs of love, hope, and vision" performed by Carole Etzler and Bren Chambers.
Sponsored by the Women's Center, several other PTS student organizations and the University's Women's Center, "Carole and Bren in Concert" will offer a program of classical guitar, cello and voice highlighting songs from their record releases. Their presentation at the Seminary is part of a cross-country concert tour celebrating their newest album "Thirteen Ships."

GENERAL NOTICES

PTS HISPANIC ASSOCIATION

On February 17, 1987, the Student Government Association approved the proposal officially recognizing the formation of the PTS Hispanic Association. Developed as an advocate for Hispanic students, the organization's objective is to serve as an interpreter of the characteristics of ministry to the Hispanic communities in the United States and to cultivate an appreciation of the Hispanic community. Group leaders have chosen "evangelism" as this semester's theme. For more information, please contact Victor (275-0031) or Martha (683-4238).

MEMORANDUM FROM THE DEAN

Scholarship available for Appalachian Summer Term:
Princeton Seminary will be making available a full scholarship of $2500 for a student who wishes to attend the Appalachian Ministries Educational Resource Center's Summer Term for Seminarians, June 4 - July 31, 1987. This scholarship will cover full tuition, board, room, and related fees including travel in the region. This program provides excellent training in rural and small town ministry. Students who contemplate possible service in such areas are encouraged to apply for this scholarship. Brochures offering full information are available in the Office of the Dean of the Seminary, 128 Administration Building. Married couples can be accommodated at minimal extra cost. (Full details are given in the brochure.) You are urged to consider this significant opportunity.

Conrad H. Massa

WOMEN'S CENTER

The Women's Center Board is accepting letters of intent from women interested in the coordinator position for the 1987-88 academic year. The deadline for filing letters of intent is March 13. The election will be held after spring break.

LENTEN DEVOTIONAL

Copies of the Lenten Devotional, sponsored by the deacons, will be distributed this week. The booklet contains brief daily reflections written by members of the Seminary and is intended to offer daily guidance to our community in preparation of the celebration of Christ's passion and Resurrection.

YOU'RE INVITED

The Stewardship Committee extends an invitation to all members of the Seminary community to become a part of the committee's ministry. In particular, the committee encourages the participation of juniors, middlers, and spouses. The Stewardship Committee meets regularly on Monday afternoons at 12:40 p.m.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

Basketball: Tuesday and Thursday evenings, Whiteley Gym
Intramural basketball is well underway. Games are played on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and community members are invited to attend games. For those not playing on a team but interested in basketball action, there will be a "slam dunk competition" held during this season. Champion Johnny Chandler will compete again all entrants. Contact Gordon Mapes at the gym for information and time.

T.B.A. INFORMATION

Reminder: March 6 will be the last day Religion in America (required for CH 02) will be available at the T.B.A. If you think you will need this book, please purchase it before the deadline. Returns of unwanted copies of this title must be taken care of by the March 6 deadline.

GENERAL NOTICES

APPALACHIAN PROGRAM TO GIVE COURSE CREDIT

The summer program in Appalachia Ministry has been approved by the Curriculum Committee for one three-hour course credit for Princeton students matriculated in the M.Div. program. This is in addition to the $2500 scholarship for the program which will be provided by the Seminary. Because the program covers the June and July period, a student will have opportunity during August and early September for employment or other activities before resuming the fall program. The deadline for making application to this program is rapidly approaching, and interested students should advise the Dean of the Seminary as soon as possible. Full brochures and applications are available in the Dean's office. On Monday, March 30, there will be an opportunity to speak to a student at Drew Seminary who was involved in last summer's program.

Conrad H. Massa

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS

FILM SERIES

Beginning Monday, March 30, Speer Library, room 205
Professor Paris will open his classroom, "Ethics and Politics in the Black Community," so that members of the Seminary community may view the documentary film series Eyes on the Prize, recently shown on PBS television. The films focus on America's civil rights years from 1954 through 1965. The following is a list of this week's days, times, and titles. Each part is one-hour long. If your schedule permits, please feel free to attend. Three of the six films in the series will be shown this week, and three next week.

Monday, March 30, 10:00 a.m. "Awakenings" (1954-1956)
-the story of two events focusing the nation's attention on the rights of black Americans: the 1955 lynching in Mississippi of 14-year old Emmett Till and the 1955-56 Montgomery, Alabama, boycott forcing the desegregation of public buses.

Wednesday, April 1, 10:40 a.m. "Fighting Back" (1957-1962)
-the program covers the court cases of the late 1940s leading to the 1954 Supreme Court Brown v Board of Education decision; the stories of nine black teenagers who in 1957 integrated Little Rock's Central High School; and James Meredith's 1962 enrollment at the University of Mississippi.

Friday, April 3, 10:40 a.m. "Ain't Scared of Your Jails" (1960-1961)
-links four stories of the period: the lunch counter sit-ins, the formation of SNCC, the impact of the sit-ins on the 1960 presidential campaign, and the freedom rides.

BOOK SIGNING

Monday, March 30, T.B.A., 1:00 - 2:30 p.m.
Guest - Dr. Craig Dykstra. Faith Development and Fowler, edited by Craig Dykstra and Sharon Parks. Based on the enormous influence of James Fowler in the field of pastoral care this book includes chapters by respected experts in the fields of the psychology of religion, practical theology, psychotherapy, and religious education who carefully examine Fowler's research. Each chapter lays out the practical significance of Fowler's work for here-and-now ministry. Refreshments will be served.

HISPANIC ASSOCIATION

Monday, March 30, Mackay Center, room D, 12:30 p.m.
Cesar Ayala, Spec., a native of Salvador and pastor of a Hispanic church in Plainfield, New Jersey, will talk on his experiences with his new church and the rapid rate of growth of his congregation in "Evangelism, Resource for Growth."

STUDENTS' LECTURESHIP ON MISSIONS

Thursday, April 9, & Friday, April 10, Main Lounge
Ms. Mercy Amba Oduyoye, Henry Luce Visiting Professor of World Christianity, Union Theological Seminary, New York.

A former visiting lecturer and research associate in Christianity and Culture at Harvard Divinity School, and for the past 12 years a member of the faculty of the Religious Studies Department at the University of Ibadan, Nigeria, Ms. Oduyoye has written widely on Christianity and culture, theology and women, and ecumenical concerns. Her most recent book, Hearing and Knowing: Theological Reflections on Christianity in Africa, was published by Orbis in June 1986.

Lecture I - Thursday, April 9, 7:00 p.m.
"Christian Mission and Contemporary African Relations"

Lecture II - Friday, April 10, 1:30 p.m.
"A Theology for Mission and Ministry in Africa"

Lecture III - Friday, April 10, 4:30 p.m.
"Women, Culture, and Christian Mission in Africa"

THEATER

Thursday, April 9, Friday, April 10, Saturday, April 11, Auditorium, 8:00 p.m.
"An Aisle Seat." A musical featuring the Seminary's campus cast in a diversified review of songs of humor, intrigue, spirituality and passion. Milton Lyon, a veteran of professional theater on the staff of the Speech Department, will direct the production.

PASCHAL VIGIL

Saturday, April 18
The annual Paschal Vigil held on the Seminary campus will begin with the familiar Service of Light at 7:00 p.m. in Hodge Hall. The evening's program will trace salvation history from creation to eschatological hope. The Vigil will also include reflections on primordial history, Israelite history, the Incarnation, Crucifixion, and Resurrection as well as the Gathering of the Church, and the Service of Water. The Vigil will close at midnight with the eschatological banquet.

Those planning to attend the banquet are asked to contribute items such as fruit, cheese, and bread. Food items to be used for the breaking of the fast should be brought to the Mackay Campus Center between 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. The Vigil Committee encourages the traditional wearing of light colored clothing on the evening of the Vigil.

NEUMANN LECTURE

Thursday, April 23, Main Lounge, 1:30 p.m.
Professor Charles Curran, Department of Theology, The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., will deliver the annual Frederick Neumann Lecture. His topic will be "Catholic Social Ethics and Personal Ethics: A Methodological Comparison."

Father Curran was censured by the Vatican in August 1986 for his views on official church teachings on divorce, abortion, pre-marital sex, homosexuality, and other issues. He has written extensively in the field of Christian ethics. His most recent book is Toward an American Catholic Moral Theology, published earlier this year. He is the author of Faithful Dissent, Directions in Fundamental Moral Theology, and Directions in Catholic Social Ethics, among other volumes and articles.

GENERAL NOTICES

UNITED WAY WRAP-UP

The United Way Communique issued recently highlights Princeton Seminary, among others, for an outstanding campaign. Contributions from Seminary community members increased 23% over last year giving a total pledge of $6105.00 to support local agencies. In February, the Seminary was awarded another bronze plaque for its efforts on behalf of the United Way-Princeton Area Communities drive. Thank you for supporting this program again.

BACH !

April 6 - 10

During the week of April 6, music will be played before and after the services of worship in Miller Chapel. Many of the music offerings will be performed by members of the student body on piano, organ, harpsichord, and other instruments. Selections from the works of J.S. Bach have been chosen. Plan to arrive early to enjoy this feature.

PARTIAL SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

The Office of Financial Aid has College Work Study funds available for summer employment. Students presently in field education positions may apply for funds to continue the current work on a full-time basis. Students who would like to initiate an experience in a non-church setting may apply for funding as well. The funds available would provide for four full-time positions at $6.00 per hour, from the last week in May through the last week in June.

C.P.E.

PT 41-42 Part-time Clinical Pastoral Education 1987-88

If you are planning to enroll in PT 41-42 during the academic year 1987-88, you are asked to stop by the C.P.E. Office, 21 Dickinson Street, room 101, to obtain an application. After making application, it will be necessary to schedule an interview with an area supervisor before registering. This course runs between September and May and may be taken for either academic or field education credit. If you have questions, please call Mrs. Hullfish, extension 326.

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS

FILM SERIES

Eyes on the Prize Speer Library, room 205

Monday, April 6, 10:00 a.m. "No Easy Walk" (1962-1966)
-retells the stories of three cities indelibly linked with the civil rights movement: Albany, Georgia, where police Chief Laurie Pritchett and Martin Luther King, Jr., each tested the strategy of nonviolence in their own way; Birmingham, Alabama, where children marched against Bull Connor's fire hoses and filled the jails; and Washington, D.C., where black and white, young and old, north and south, came together to march on the nation's capital.

Wednesday, April 8, 10:40 a.m. "Mississippi: Is This America?" (1962-1964)
-the time had come-black citizens, denied the right to vote, stepped forward and demanded a place in the political process. Medgar Evers, Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman, James Chaney, and others died trying to help, but not in vain. By summer's end, 1964, a delegation of the newly formed Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party would challenge the 1964 Democratic Party Convention in Atlantic City.

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS

FILM SERIES

Eyes on the Prize Speer Library, room 205

Monday, April 13, 10:00 a.m. "Bridge to Freedom." (1965) Ten years after Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat to a white man on a Montgomery, Alabama, bus and nearly 20 years after the Supreme Court decreed that "separate but equal" was unconstitutional, black Americans were still fighting for equality. But millions had now joined the movement, and in Selma, Alabama, thousands of blacks and whites came together to march 50 miles for freedom. Alumnus James Reeb ('53B) also joined this march and lost his life on March 11, 1965.

You can call Lisa Hansen, 921-2154, if you have questions.

PASCHAL VIGIL

Saturday, April 18, Hodge Hall, 7:00 p.m.
The annual Paschal Vigil held on the Seminary campus will begin with the familiar Service of Light. The evening's program will trace salvation history from creation to eschatological hope. The Vigil will also include reflections on primordial history, Israelite history, the Incarnation, Crucifixion, and Resurrection as well as the Gathering of the Church, and the Service of Water. The Vigil will close at midnight with the customary eschatological banquet.

Those planning to attend the banquet are asked to contribute items such as fruit, cheese, and bread. Food items to be used for the breaking of the fast should be brought to the Mackay Campus Center between 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. The Vigil Committee encourages the traditional wearing of light colored clothing on the evening of the Vigil.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Summer switchboard coverage
Beginning May 24 a student will be needed to fill in during lunch and break periods. Experience not required.

Vacation period/switchboard coverage
One or more students will be needed to cover the Seminary switchboard from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, for the last week of July and the first three weeks in August. Experience not required.

If you are interested in either of the above positions, please contact Kim Courtney, extension 317, or Personnel Director Barbara Primas, extension 367.

Grounds & Buildings Department
Four grounds-people are needed this summer. Employment would begin at the end of spring examinations and conclude next fall at the beginning of the semester.
Hours: 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.; one-half hour lunch period; Monday - Friday (40-hour work week).
Duties include grounds work, trash pick-up, and occasional light furniture moving. Those interested should contact Mr. Stanley McKaig, superintendent of grounds and buildings, 921-8300, extension 219.

Chapel Assistants (formerly known as Chapel Deacons)
Applications are now being accepted for two paid positions for the 1987-88 academic year. If interested, please write to Mr. Sanders, Miller Chapel, room #3.

NEED A LOCKER ?

Lockers are now available to you in the basement of Stuart Hall. If you are interested in reserving one, please stop by the Housing Office, Administration Building, room #14.

Father Curran was censured by the Vatican in August 1986 for his views on official church teachings on divorce, abortion, pre-marital sex, homosexuality, and other issues. He has written extensively in the field of Christian ethics. His most recent book is Toward an American Catholic Moral Theology, published earlier this year. He is the author of Faithful Dissent, Directions in Fundamental Moral Theology, and Directions in Catholic Social Ethics, among other volumes and articles.

FORUM ON THEOLOGY IN AMERICA

Friday, April 24, Stuart Hall, room #6, 3:15 p.m.
"Taking Stock of Theology in America Today."
Five leading contemporary theologians will make up the panel. They are: Avery Dulles, S.J., Catholic University of America; Pheme Perkins, Boston College; Eugene Borowitz, Hebrew Union College and the Jewish Institute of Religion of New York; Letty Russell, Yale University Divinity School; and Gabriel Fackre, Andover-Newton Theological School.

Each theologian will address particular areas of theology: Catholicism and ecumenism (Dulles), the study of the Bible (Perkins), Jewish presence in theology (Borowitz), feminist theology and ethics (Russell), and Protestant theology, evangelicalism, and black theology (Fackre). The president of the American Theological Society, Richard A. Norris, Jr., of Union Theological Seminary in New York, will moderate the discussion.

CONCERT

Friday, April 24, Princeton University Chapel, 8:30 p.m.
"Music for a Great Cathedral."

OXFORD STYLE DEBATE

Wednesday, April 29, Main Lounge, 12:40 p.m.

Resolved: That Jesse Jackson's candidacy for president of the United States is good for blacks in particular and for the nation as a whole.

This resolution will be the subject of debate by Professor Paris' class "Ethics and Politics in the Black Community."

Dr. Paris will hold an open classroom for those who would like to attend. The distinguishing characteristic of an Oxford style debate is that the audience participates by moving to either side of the room depending on the persuasive appeal of each speaker. The final tally of votes is determined by counting those on either side of the room. A combination of good humour, serious reasoning and rhetorical flourish are promised.

WORKSHOP

Tuesday, May 5, Auditorium, 6:30 - 9:00 p.m.
Wednesday, May 6, Main Lounge, 6:30 - 9:00 p.m.
"Sex Abuse and Pastoral Care."

The Women's Center, CL/GC, and Plowshares will sponsor two evening lectures on the topic of "Sex Abuse and Pastoral Care." Speakers slated are the Reverend Kathleen Roney-Wilson and the Reverend Dr. Gary Lee.

An ordained American Baptist minister, Ms. Roney-Wilson is executive director of the Somerset County Chaplaincy Council. Her particular expertise is in working with pastoral issues in conjunction with the criminal justice system, including sexual abuse, criminology, and pastoral counseling.

Mr. Lee is an ordained Lutheran pastor, and minister to Congregation Life, a counseling service at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Rockford, Illinois. His professional specialties are systematic theology, personality theory, grief, extreme trauma therapy, post-trauma syndrome, and non-violent communication.

THEATER

Thursday, May 7, Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.
"Evening of Improvisation"
The sixth annual "Evening of Improvisation" will be presented by Virginia Damon, assistant director of speech emerita, and the Players.

o o o o o

Summer Apartment Sublet: Those students who would like to sublet their apartments for the summer should visit the Housing Office for information and guidance on subletting procedures. There will be sign-up sheets available for students who are interested in subletting either into or out of apartments. Please contact David Poinsett.

o o o o o

Spring Bloodmobile: "Thank you" on behalf of the Seminary, the Princeton Red Cross, and the Greater New York Blood Program to all who took part in the spring Bloodmobile on April 1. The numbers were up slightly from last spring, and we had a successful drive with 80 pints contributed. Your willingness to donate will help many with medical emergencies.

There is always a need for blood donation. If you were unable to contribute on April 1, or are willing to contribute again, you can donate at the Princeton Medical Center. Carol Troy at the Princeton Red Cross, 924-2404, will make an appointment for you and will credit the Seminary.

Memo to those who could contribute, but didn't...the Bloodmobile returns in November!

HERMENEUTICS CONFERENCE

Monday, May 11 - Wednesday, May 13, Stuart Hall
Theme: "Religious Texts and Social Locations."
The Seminary will host religious scholars and theologians of the Jewish, Christian, and Muslim traditions at a conference of over 100 participants from the United States and Canada.

Dr. Mark Taylor, coordinator, defined the conference as an examination of the significance of hermeneutics for theology. Four areas will be explored:

- the challenge of feminism to the interpretation of religious texts,
- the manner in which texts are not only read but prayed and acted,
- the ways exploited classes are viewed in religious interpretation,
- and the marginalization of North American theology.

continued...

Major papers will be presented by Martin Jay, The University of California; Michael Fishbane, Brandeis University; Mieke Bal, The University of Rochester; Patricia Cox Miller, Syracuse University; Vincent Wimbush, Claremont School of Theology; and Van Harvey, Stanford University.

The conference is one of three annual conferences to be sponsored between 1987 and 1989 by Conversations, a project funded by the Lilly Endowment, Inc., and guided by faculty at the Seminary and Princeton University. The project's aim is to promote and critically assess 20th century hermeneutical reflection with special emphasis on the roles of specific cultural forces in interpreting theological and religious texts.

Please contact Patricia Howey to register, 921-8300, extension 418, or 683-4670. There is no charge.
